So much for Clazy Jane and her bullshit theories about micro-economic diversity! What if everything's little and

The Same?

A billion Chinese hopping into the Red Dawn of the New Millennium as one body on Deane's Foot....

*****

I got a lotta projects. Always on the go. Talk all the time on the net, to dozens of experts in every field: geology, prospecting, engineering, accounting, and DRILLING, DRILLING, DRILLING....

I got a small computer application system....

I got a reservoir simulation model for a oil field of 772 oil wells, where CO2 is being pumped in by pipeline from the U S of A and drilled into the ground till the rich dinosaur blood gushes out the oil wells on the other end....

I got a fixed asset inventory system, to better manage the millions and billions in oil field equipment the corporations leave rotting in the middle of this here prairie.... I can tell them whether they should redeploy their assets elsewhere, or just sell the shit....

I got an administrative system to help management do succession planning for key positions in the company. With this software I can identify potential up and comers, general managers, VPs, and other motherfuckers....

I got a software career path for mapping the necessary experience straight up the ass-hole of the CEO, and predicting the risks of getting someone trained in an all the latest tonguing and rimming techniques, only to have the little cocksucker elope with another corporate pimp and a suitcase full of stock options....

I can cap your ASS....
